Speakers came to Phoenix on Thursday, March 14th to graciously share how they use mathematics in their careers for our "Math in the Workplace" day. This gave students an opportunity to see actual practical applications of some of the mathematics they are learning about. Speakers were:

- Andrew Ross (Domain Manager for Defined Contributions with Aon Hewitt)
- Alzada Robinson (Operation Manager for Pensions with Aon Hewitt)
- Trisha Robles (Pharmaceutical Representative with Proctor and Gamble)
- Don Thrower (S.E. Region Operations Manager with Mayer Electric Supply Co. Inc.)
