Eight new GCPS facilities invite communities to dedications

The students, faculty, and staff at Gwinnett’s eight new facilities invite their communities to take part in the formal dedication of the buildings Gwinnett County Public Schools (GCPS) opened in August.

A dedication ceremony for each of the new schools will take place this fall as follows:

- Sunday, September 19:
  - Ferguson Elementary, 1:30 p.m.
  - 1755 Centerview Dr., Duluth

- Sunday, October 3:
  - Anderson Livsey Elementary, 2 p.m.
  - 4521 Centerville Highway, Snellville

- Sunday, October 10:
  - Roberts Elementary, 1:30 p.m.
  - 251 Buford Highway, Suwanee

- Sunday, October 17:
  - Grace Snell Middle 2 p.m.
  - 3800 Brushy Fork Rd., Loganville

- Sunday, October 24:
  - Lanier High, 3 p.m.
  - 918 Buford Highway, Sugar Hill

- Sunday, November 7:
  - Burnette Elementary, 1:30 p.m.
  - 3221 Burnette Rd., Suwanee

CEO/Superintendent J. Alvin Wilbanks, as well as members of the Gwinnett County Board of Education will attend the events. Local area dignitaries also have been invited to participate.

--30--