

History of

K. E. Taylor Elementary School

K. E. Taylor Elementary School was established in 1997. The school was named after “Kope Elise (K.E.) Taylor. In 1924, K. E. Taylor was voted to the office of Gwinnett County School Superintendent. He took office in January 1925, and remained in office until his death in January 1933.

K. E. Taylor Elementary School is part of the Collins Hill Cluster, which in 2009–10 includes: McKendree Elementary School, Rock Springs Elementary School, Walnut Grove Elementary School, Creekland Middle School, and Collins Hill High School. K. E. Taylor Elementary School was originally planned as a replacement school for Dyer Elementary School; later it became a relief school for students from Walnut Grove Elementary School, Dyer Elementary School, and McKendree Elementary School.

School Mission

The mission of the Taylor Elementary Community is to develop academic excellence and social responsibility.

School Vision

The vision of Taylor Elementary School is that students, teachers, and parents will create a dynamic community of lifelong learners based on democratic principals and practices, which prepare students for success in a global society.

FAST FACTS

Address: 600 Taylor School Drive
Lawrenceville, GA 30043

The following have served as principals of Taylor Elementary School:

| | |
|--------------|-------------------|
| 1997–2006 | Dr. Jerry Lehner. |
| 2006–2011 | Sandee Williams |
| 2011–Present | Paula Cobb |

School Colors: Green, Silver, White

School Mascot: Eagle

