Robbie Susan Moore Scholarships honor service to community

As Gwinnett County Public Schools (GCPS) gets ready to open its newest school, Moore Middle, the school district recently took part in posthumously honoring Gwinnett County community leader Robbie Susan Moore with the selection of the first recipients of the Robbie Susan Moore Scholarship. Two Gwinnett students were awarded scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each, Jayla Hood of Brookwood High and Shiloh High's Dana Tzegaegbe.

Sponsored by the United Ebony Society of Gwinnett in conjunction with the Gwinnett County Public Schools Foundation Fund, Inc., the scholarship was established in 2010. The purpose of the scholarship is to recognize GCPS graduates who have exemplified themselves as students and through community service, and are seeking to continue their education at the post-secondary level.
